Experience

Student Intern - Siemens DISW

June 2025 - July 2025

- Within the Mendix Cloud IAM team, I engineered a comprehensive automation strategy that streamlined the entire software delivery lifecycle for the SAML authentication module. By writing test cases using Mendix Unit Testing module, Playwright Automation tool and integrating them into the CI/CD pipeline, I successfully eliminated over 70% of the manual DevOps workload. This initiative went beyond simple test execution, automating key processes from test case generation and environment setup to deployment and SSO validation, resulting in a significant increase in development velocity and release reliability.
